

MARMI E GRANITI D'ITALIA
Sicilmarmi dal 1948

Project name:

455 W 20th Street

Located within the grounds of the General Theological Seminary, 455 West 20th Street is a condominium comprised of two developments: the West Building, conversion of one of the oldest public buildings in Chelsea, and the Annex, a free-standing structure built specifically for this project. MGI supplied the Caldia marble for all the master baths of the condominium's 22 units; a total of 800 sqm were cut to size for vanity tops, showers, tubs and wainscoting, 1" x 1" Caldia mosaic tiles were also installed in the bathroom floors.

Client: Brodsky Organization

Architect: Alan Wanzenberg Architects

Year of completion: 2013

Location: New York City (NY), USA

Project type: Residential

Material	Caldia honed
Thickness	3 cm slabs and 1 cm mosaics
Format	CTS and mosaics
Quantity	Approx. 800 sqm

